

AUTHOR VISIT - SIDONIA'S THREAD

ARBEIT MACHT FREI

Tuesday
August 7
6:30PM

Come listen to memoirist, Hanna Perlstein Marcus, speak about her life with her mother, Sidonia, a master dressmaker and designer, and Holocaust survivor. She will talk about her books, Sidonia's Thread and Surviving Remnant, the first two books in the Sidonia's Thread trilogy. You will learn the challenges of a foreign-born woman with no family except a young daughter and how she overcame her sorrow with the creative talent that made a name for her in Western New England. Her fashions live on today and will be on exhibition in 2019!

Author Hanna Marcus
& her mother Sidonia

Registration Requested
860-561-6990
www.westhartfordlibrary.org