

Join us for a parenting workshop on

Raising Highly Sensitive Children

with Educational Therapist, Maura Harris

Do you have a child who is shy, “fussy”, fearful of new situations? A vivid dreamer, distressed by scary movies, and prone to hurt feelings? Shows thought beyond his/her years as well as high level of compassion? Presenter Maura Harris is an educational therapist and learning strategists who has worked with many highly sensitive children, pre-teens, and teens for the past 15 years.

Program meets in the Noah Webster Library Children’s Storyroom. Registration is requested but drops-ins are welcome.

Tuesday, Jan. 15
6:30 PM

