

Confronting Climate Change with Clean Renewable Energy

Climate change is a challenge to us all. Are you asking yourself questions like "What can I do?" or "Am I doing enough?" This program, presented by the Sierra Club's Connecticut State Director Samantha Dynowski, will explore the emissions that lead to climate destruction and individual and community actions that can reduce our own impact on climate change.

Wednesday
March 25
6:30PM

